

DEPARTMENT OF GEOGRAPHY

Programme Specific Outcomes of BA/B.Sc Geography

1. Understand the philosophical and methodological foundation of geography, concept of physical geography and consequences of human activities on the atmospheric process.
2. Understand and aware of environmental issues at global and regional level, educate the students on the management of disaster and hazards, sensitize the students to the concept of sustainable development
3. Acquaint the students in both laboratory and field techniques and help them in understanding the complex nature of places and areas by the scientific techniques of more careful observation, more analytical tools of analysis and interpretation.
4. Acquire knowledge about the world and Asia, to have comparison between developed and developing nations, comprehensive, integrated and empirically based profile of India to understand its geopolitical personality and its relation with other countries.
5. Acquaint with the dynamic aspect of economic geography, transformation of economic activities through different stages with various factors responsible for economic development.

Course outcome

1. Help Government agencies to frame policies of development for area specific.
2. Understand the nature of man-environment relationship and human capability to adapt and modify the environment.
3. Familiarize with the geographical factors which have a bearing on the political organization of space and enhance awareness of multi dimensional nature of geo political space.