

PROGRAMME: B.A

SUBJECT: ECONOMICS

(Programme Outcome, Programme Specific Outcomes and Course Outcomes)

PROGRAMME OUTCOME(POs) B.A(ECONOMICS)

PO1: Critical thinking: Students will be able to make proper observations. Identify problems and analyze issues from various perspectives. The program is expected to broaden their general understanding of the subject.

PO2: Effective Communication: The communication skill of the students is expected to be enhanced at the end of the degree programme. They should be able to properly communicate and express their thoughts and ideas whether in speech, written or even through listening.

PO3: Social Interaction: Graduates should be able to listen and absorb opinions of others on contrasting issues and be able to reach conclusions in a group setting.

PO4: Effective Citizenship: The students should be able to show empathetic social concern and equity centered national development and possess the ability to act with an informed awareness of issues and participate in civic life through volunteering.

PO5: Ethics: They are expected to identify different value systems including their own. They should be able to understand the moral dimensions of their every decision and accept full responsibility for that.

PO6: Environment and Sustainability: The students should have an understanding of the various environment and sustainability related issues.

PO7: Self-directed and Life-long Learning: By the end of the programme students are expected to be equipped with the ability to engage in independent and life-long learning processes.

PROGRAMME SPECIFIC OUTCOMES (PSOs):

PSO1 (Micro Economics) 2 papers:

This course will give a general understanding of the basic principles of Micro-economic theories. It will help the students understand the behavior of the individual consumer, the producer and that of a competitive firm.

PSO2 (Macro-Economics) 2 papers:

This will expose the students to various macro-economic models and help them understand the theoretical issues related to an open economy.

PSO3(Quantitative Technique) 2 papers

The objective of this course is to make the students equipped with various mathematical and statistical tools.

PSO4(Public Finance and Banking) 1 paper:

Learn the general theories of public economics and give them an opportunity to be critical about the government policies in the areas of allocation and distribution of public resources.

PSO5 International Economics) 1 paper:

This course will help the students understand the economic interaction of a nation and its consequences on international issues such as trade, its determinants and effects of trade policies on world economic activities.

PSO6 (Environmental Economics) 1 Paper:

The course will help in understanding the financial impact of environmental policies on environmental problems. It can help in understanding and designing appropriate environmental policies and analyze the effects and its merits of existing or proposed policies.

PsO7(Economic Growth and Development) 1 Paper:

The paper will help in identifying various models of economic growth and development and allow the students to understand the role of the state in the process of economic growth and development

PSO8 (Indian Economy) 2 papers:

It will highlight the trend of the growth of Indian economy since independence, the impact of various economic policies, and give an understanding on the topics on population, poverty, inequalities and unemployment.

COURSE OUTCOME(CO)

CO1: What are the basic economic problems? Define the concept of equilibrium in the context of the consumer, producer and markets.

CO2: Define macro-economics. Discuss on the determination of income and employment. What are the different concepts of money?

CO3: What are the rules of differentiation and integration?

Define correlation and regression.

CO4: What is the meaning and scope of Public Finance? What are the objectives of fiscal policy?

CO5: What are the different theories of International trade? Define Balance of Payment.

CO6: What is the meaning of Ecology? Define welfare economics.

CO7: Distinguish between economic growth and development. What are the various theories of economic development?

CO8: What are the basic features of Indian economy? Discuss about the growth and performance of the different sectors of the economy