

Department Of Philosophy
Fazl Ali College, Mokokchung

Program Outcome and Course Outcome, FYUGP 2024

A. PROGRAM OUTCOMES

- i. Acquire and develop strong Foundations of basic Philosophical thoughts and problems
- ii. Develop Competency in Clear, Reflective, and Critical thinking

B. COURSE OUTCOMES:

C1: Western Philosophy 1: Students introduced to genesis of Western Philosophy, acquainted with basic ideas of Philosophy concerning categories of reality, knowledge, and truth.

C2: Indian Philosophy 1: Students acquainted with basic problems of metaphysics and epistemology in classical Indian Philosophy

C3: Western Philosophy 11: students are acquainted with modern western philosophy and given a foundation of classical philosophical problems

C4: Indian Philosophy 11: Students acquainted with basic problems of metaphysics and epistemology in classical Indian Philosophy

C5: Logic 1: Students introduced to deductive Aristotlean and traditional logic.

C6: Philosophy of Culture: students gain theoretical knowledge on concept of culture and understanding of the traditional Naga way of life

C7: Ethics – Western and Indian: Learn ethical theories and ideas of morality in both Western and Indian traditions

C8: Logic 11: Students acquainted with tools of logical reasoning and testing them in Modern Symbolic Logic

C9: Philosophy of Religion: students acquainted with dominant problems and concepts of Philosophy of Religion from the perspective of major world religions as well as Naga Tribal Religion

C10: Social and Political Philosophy: Students introduced to social and political thoughts and ideals

C11: Applied Ethics: Students made aware of significant problems and issues in applied ethics and appreciate moral choices and responsibilities of human beings

C12: Contemporary Indian Philosophy: Students acquainted with thoughts and ideas of prominent modern Indian philosophical issues

C13: Christian theology: Students acquainted with theological interpretations of philosophical ontology

C14: Existentialism and Phenomenology: Students introduced to various strands of thought in contemporary philosophers of Existentialism and Phenomenology

C15: Philosophy of Human Rights: Students made aware of the different facets and issues concerning Human Rights

C16: Analytic Philosophy: Scientific attitude toward logic, language and reality promoted among students

C17: Philosophy of Mind: Students introduced to study of nature and problem of mind from both the Western and Indian perspectives

C18: Textual Study: Students introduced to some important original texts in philosophy.

Sd/-

Tiarenla Aier

Assoc Prof and Head

Department of Philosophy, Fazl Ali College, Mokokkchung.